The Defendant filed a motion for variance under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). The plea agreement states that “defendant may not request or recommend additional downward adjustments, departures, . . . and sentence reductions under 18 U.S.C. § 3553.” (Filing No. 26, ¶ VI(C).) Therefore, the motion is denied.

1. The parties are notified that my tentative findings are that the PSR is correct in all respects;

2. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

3. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 2 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final;

4. The Defendant's motion for variance (Filing No. 31) is denied; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 23rd day of April, 2012.
